National Health Insurance Service					President (signature)

Note1) Exam for hepatitis B: Only for those who of age 40 years (except hepatitis B antigen carrier or antibody carrier) Note2) Declaration of cost burden.

① No charge: All costs for general health checkups, cervical cancer screenings, and colon cancer screenings are covered by NHIS. The NHIS covers 90% and the state covers 10% for persons who are NHIS early cancer exam recipients taking the stomach, liver, breast and/or lung cancer exams.

② 10% cost to recipient: NHIS is responsible for 90%, recipient for 10%.

※ Ten percent of the costs paid by the recipient may be changed when the “Health Insurance Reimbursement Cost” is revised.

※ After calculating the recipient’s fees through additional counseling fees, administrative fees, and examination payments, discount fees that are under KRW 10.

③ No application: nonapplicant.

④ Exam completion: person who is already done with the related exam.

⑤ If cancer is confirmed, the patient can get some support for medical expenses. (Cannot apply if you do not take the exam this year). However, patients with lung cancer receive medical expense support regardless of national cancer screening.

※ Age rules for cancer examinations: stomach cancer (over 40), breast cancer (females over 40), colon cancer (over 50), liver cancer (over 40 with high risk), cervical cancer (females over 20) and lung cancer (from 54 to 74 with high risk)

※ A person registered to the Benefit Extension Policy or who had a colonoscopy within five years can postpone the cancer screening.

※ You can check the screening recipient, screening agency, and annual screening result from the Web page of the National Health Insurance Service (www.nhis.or.kr).

※ If you had not been fasting for more than eight hours prior to the health checkup, if you had the night shift prior to the checkup, or if you were examined during your menstrual cycle, the result may be inaccurate. Please observe the health checkup precautions before your examination.
